

The Lord Will Come And Not Be Slow

John Milton

William Jones

The Lord will come and not be slow, His Truth from the earth, like to a flower, Shall Rise, God, judge Thou the earth in might, This The na - tions all whom Thou hast made Shall For great Thou art, and won - ders great By

3 G/B Em G/B D<sup>7</sup> G foot - steps can - not err; Be - bud and blos - som then; And wick - ed earth re - dress; For come, and all shall frame To Thy strong hand are done: Thou

5 C/E D/F# G C/E G/B C D fore Him right - eous - ness shall go, His jus - tice, from her heaven - ly bower, Look Thou art He who shalt be right The bow them low be - fore Thee, Lord, And in Thy ev - er - last - ing seat Re -

7 G Em G/D D<sup>7</sup> G roy - al har - bin - ger.
down on mor - tal men.
na - tions all pos - sess.
glo - ri - fy Thy Name.
main - est God a lone.