Christ of the Up-ward Way, My Guide di - vine,
Give me the heart to hear Thy voice and will,
Give me the good stout arm To shield the right,
Christ of the Up-ward Way, My Guide di - vine,

Where Thou hast set Thy feet May I place mine;
That with - out fault or fear I may ful - fill
And weild Thy sword of truth With all my might,
Where Thou hast set Thy feet May I place mine;

And move and march wher - ev - er Thou hast trod,
Thy pur - pose with a glad and ho - ly zest,
That, in the war - fare I must wage for Thee,
And when Thy last call comes se - rene and clear,

Keep - ing face for - ward up the hill of God.
Like one who would not bring less than his best.
More than a vic - tor I may ev - er be.
Clam may my an - swer be "Lord, I am here."
