

God Is Our Refuge And Our Strength

Winchester Old

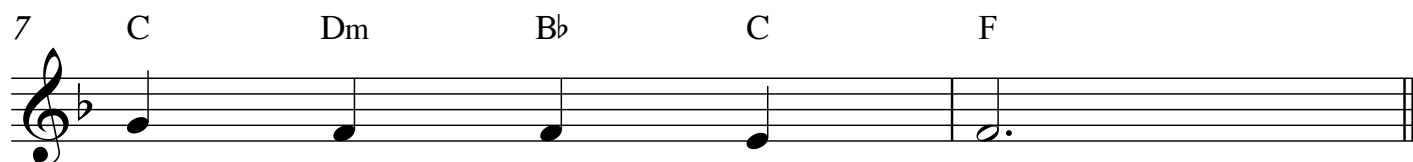

God is our ref - uge and our strength, Our Though hills a - midst the seas be cast, Though A riv - er flows whose streams make glad the Since God is in the midst of her, Un - Be still and know that I am God, O'er The Lord of Hosts is on our side, Our ev - er pres - ent aid, And foam - ing wa - ters roar, Yea, cit - y of our God, The moved her walls shall stand, For all ex - alt - ed high; The safe - ty to se - cure; The there - fore, though the earth re - move, We though the might - y bil - lows - shake The ho - ly place where - in the Lord Most God will be her ear - ly help, When sub - ject na - tions of the earth My God of Ja - cob is for us A will not be a - fraid.

 moun - tains on the shore.
 High has His a - bode.
 trou - ble is at hand.
 Name shall mag - ni - fy.
 ref - uge strong and sure.