

God Of My Life

Philip Doddridge (1702-1751)

Traditional Scottish Melody
arr. by Lowell Mason (1792-1872)

A E7 F#m A/C# D A

God of my life, through all my days I'll When an - xious care would break my rest, And When death o'er na - ture shall pre - vail, And
But, O, when that last con - flict's o'er, And Then shall I learn th'ex - alt - ed strains That

5 E(sus4) E A/C# E A E/G# B7/F# E

tune the grate - ful notes of _____ praise;
grief would tear _____ my throbb - ing _____ breast,
all the pow - ers of lan - guage _____ fail,
I am chained to earth no _____ more,
ech - o through the heav'n - ly _____ plains,

9 A E7 F#m A/C# D A

The song shall wake with open - ing light, And
The notes of praise as - cend - ing high Shall Joy through my swim - ming eyes shall break, And With what _____ ac - cents shall I rise To
And em - u - late with joy un - know The 13 E(sus4) E A/C# D A/E E7 A war - ble to _____ the si - lent night.

check the mur - mur of the sigh.
mean the thanks_ I can - not speak.
join the glad mu - sic of the skies!
glow - ing ser - aph 'round Thy throne.